

FINANCIAL FOUNDATIONS:

A FINANCIAL LITERACY TRAINING FOR TEXAS TEACHERS

Participate in a Personal Financial Literacy program on Thursday, January 26, 2017 sponsored by Fidelity Investments & Texas Council on Economic Education. This program will focus on teachers as adult learners to better prepare them to teach key financial literacy concepts in effective ways to students in grades K-12.

Saving, investing, spending and planning concepts are essential components of a course that includes financial literacy TEKS. Learn the concepts to teach students and ways to incorporate the subject matter into a variety of classroom subjects. This professional development program will deliver essential content and provide resources to use in the classroom. Teachers will leave the session confident that they can capture students' attention, and develop understanding, retention, skills and application while addressing income, learning ability, and culture.

The program uses the Jump$tart Financial Foundations for Educators (J$FFE) curriculum presented by Fidelity professionals. An interactive session on pedagogy, strategies, and CEE/TCEE lessons will be lead by TCEE University Directors Steve Cobb, Ph.D., and Susan Doty, MBA.

The J$FFE curriculum is a collaborative endeavor designed to standardize teacher training in personal finance through a shared model which will ensure consistency and rigor in teacher training programs across the country.

The J$FFE is administered by the Jump$tart Coalition on behalf of its' partners and affiliates.
